

ANNUAL CIVIL RIGHTS TRAINING CHECKLIST FOR NON-FRONTLINE STAFF/VOLUNTEERS WHO ASSIST WITH TEFAP AND/OR CSFP

Please initial each bullet indicating that you have read and understand the content.

- ___ Goals of civil rights – fairness and equality of treatment and benefit delivery.
- ___ Types of discrimination – Disparate treatment (treating a person differently from others); disparate impact (neutral rule impacts disproportionately on a group); reprisal/retaliation against complainant or his/her family, associates or others involved in complaint process or exercising civil rights.
- ___ Exceptions – Congress can establish a program that is intended for certain groups of people and it is not discrimination to exclude those who do not meet eligibility requirements. For example, Congress can set age limits and this is not age discrimination for those who do not meet the age limits.
- ___ When do civil rights rules apply? Federal civil rights rules apply any time there is any federal financial assistance. Federal financial assistance is receiving anything of value from the federal government – not just cash. It can include commodities, training, equipment, and other goods and services.
- ___ Legal prohibitions – The policy of the WSDA Food Assistance Programs is to not discriminate against any class of persons in all services to clients. WSDA expects local programs to provide food to every person who seeks it, regardless of their status as a member of any class of persons. Any agency that directly or through a subcontractor is found after investigation to be discriminating against any class of people is at risk of termination from the program.
- ___ Federal Protected Classes – Under federal law, specific classes of persons have a right to file a federal discrimination complaint with USDA if a local program using federal resources discriminates against them. Under federal law for the purposes of TEFAP and CSFP, the protected classes under which a client may file a discrimination complaint are race, color, national origin, sex, religious creed, disability, age, and political beliefs.

Food Safety & Consumer Services Division

Defending the safety, integrity, and availability of our food system.

— Washington Protected Classes – Washington's nondiscrimination law includes the above protected classes as well as familial or parental status, marital status, political beliefs, creed, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sexual orientation/gender identity, use of a trained guide dog or service animal by a person with a disability, all or part of the individual's income is derived from any public assistance program, and reprisals.

— Filing a Federal Civil Rights Complaint – Advise people who allege discrimination based on one or more of the federal protected classes listed above on how to file a complaint by using the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-8027) found online at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint\_filing\_cust.html and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

Almost all complaints are investigated by staff from the FNS field offices located in the state where the complaint originated.

— Filing a State Discrimination Complaint – Advise people who allege discrimination based on one or more of the state protected classes of people listed above that they may file a discrimination complaint with the Washington State Human Rights Commission. A description of the processes and a link to the forms are online and can be found at: <http://www.hum.wa.gov/complaintProcess/Index.html>

— Additional Nondiscrimination Laws – In addition to federal and state law, local programs may be subject to city or county nondiscrimination laws. Programs should check with their local government to confirm whether there are any local nondiscrimination laws. Agencies must comply with local laws.

— Maintain confidentiality – Do not talk about or make remarks about people receiving benefits. Never share information with others even if your intention is to help recipients with other services or assistance. Refer all requests for information about recipients from other agencies or programs to managers. Always get a recipient's written approval to share their information or make referrals on their behalf. What happens at the site stays at the site. The exception, of course, is any illegal or inappropriate behavior that should be reported to State or Federal officials.

— Cooperate with State and Federal reviewers – USDA and WA State Department of Agriculture are required to conduct periodic compliance reviews to help ensure compliance with program and civil rights rules.

— Local Agencies must take action – Local Agencies must accept and process all complaints (program, vendor or civil rights) received by the agency regardless of whether the complaints are written, verbal, or anonymous. Details for filing complaints are outlined in Section XV of the FNS 113-1 document. The complaint may be sent to the address above for recipients' filings or sent directly to:

Food and Nutrition Service Civil Rights Division (CRD)
3103 Park Center Drive, Suite 808
Alexandria, VA 22302

— Corrective Action for Non-Complying Agencies – If there is non-compliance with federal nondiscrimination law by a contractor or subcontractor; the state will file a report with the FNS Regional Administrator at USDA and will immediately seek correction of the violation by voluntary compliance. Failure of a contractor or subcontractor to correct any non-compliance with civil rights rules can lead to legal actions and termination from the Federal programs TEFAP and CSFP, as applicable.

— Services for People with Disabilities – Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339; or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish). — Sexual harassment is prohibited – Do not engage in or tolerate unwanted or unwelcomed sexual behavior, including jokes, touching, request for sexual favors, etc. Report all violations to your management, State or Federal officials.

_____ Response to Conflicts/Emergencies – If conflict occurs, remain calm. Call for assistance immediately if you feel threatened. Consider mediation or a third party to help resolve the situation if there is no immediate resolution.

_____ Treat all people with dignity and respect. Follow the golden rule and treat people the way you would like to be treated.
